

2010: Crédit Agricole Assurances policies garner a host of awards

The French press has recognised Crédit Agricole Assurances yet again, awarding some 40 prizes to 30 of its policies in 2010. The awards confirm the company's consistently sound financial management and prove that its policies are tailored to market demand.

Every year, Crédit Agricole Assurances is involved in ten or so prize rankings and financial guides organised by the financial and business press. The Group voluntarily submits the technical and financial aspects of its products to these experts for appraisal.

Below is an extract of the 2010 awards and rankings. The full list is available on the Crédit Agricole Assurances website at www.ca-assurances.com
